Vice-Chancellor's Message

Every day we wake-up with the terror of Covid-19. Our life has changed and routine from morning to bed time has also changed. We are maintaining social distancing even at home from near and dear one. Frequent hand wash, sanitization and taking measures to improve our immunity has become part of our day-to-day life. The second wave of pandemic has caused great casualties. A large number of people have suffered from COVID in the month of April, May and June. In the meantime, Government came with vaccination drive which has been a great relief to the people. Each one of us must get vaccinated, use mask, sanitize our hand and to take all other measures to save ourselves. I feel pain for those who lost their jobs. Thanks to the government that free ration is being provided to the poor people. Some organizations and social workers have arranged 'Langar' to provide food to such persons who have no means to earn in getting food. I must thank some of the students of CNLU who have volunteered to provide help to such person who are suffering because of the pandemic. I feel pride that despite this unprecedented situations our faculty passionately rendering teaching assignment to the students. I would request all students to take care of their health and continue with their studies using e-resources. Wishing Good health to one and all.

Justice (Mrs) Mridula Mishra.

Registrar's Message

We have been suffering the wrath of Corona for the last one and a half years. We are trying our best to save ourselves, boosting up the morale of our neighbours and helping the people in their urgency. In fact, this pandemic is teaching us the significance of family life, health and freedom of movement. It is also teaching us the importance of interactive class teaching, the campus life, friends and exchange of views face to face. It is certain that the wave will end but we have to take utmost care at present. I wish all faculty, staff and dear students a very healthy and happy time ahead.

Editor's Message

The covid -19 is continuously causing great damage. The second wave in the month of April 2021 was extremely deadly. Many people lost their lives. We are shocked and sorry, express our condolence to all who lost their life in pandemic. Despite all odds, man is a supernatural creature on this earth because of his/her perseverance and taking the threats and challenges as new opportunities. The online mode has become popular and convenient. We could maintain Academic calendar and all the activities possible. We could organize seminar, parliamentary debates and other activities. It has opened the door of national and international forum without expenses. However we miss face to face interaction. I wish the pandemic be over very soon.

1st CNLU ONLINE BRITISH PARLIAMENTARY DEBATE

‘Innovation is the unrelenting drive to break the status quo and develop anew where few have dared to go.’ Following the wisdom of this saying, the ADC decided to enrich itself with the experience of a distinct yet incredible aspect of parliamentary debates—the format of British Parliamentary Debates (BPD). The endeavour to organize the 1st CNLU BPD amidst the ongoing pandemic reinforces ADC’s commitment towards prioritizing the evolution of debating prospects within the University.

The 1st CNLU ONLINE BRITISH PARLIAMENTARY DEBATE was held between April 19-21, 2021. The tournament was the first edition of its kind but there wasn't any compromise on the prize money. It was kept as high as ever, amounting to Rs 55,000. This was an OPEN tournament and cross teams were allowed. The tournament had a separate novice category as well. Like previous editions of CNLU Parliamentary Debates, a brilliant Core Adjudication Panel comprising of Apratim, Bea B. Legaspi, Mozaein Tak and Jessica, its highlight along with several reputed Invited adjudicators.

The tournament was successfully conducted with the assistance of a plethora of highly diligent and responsible undertakings by the committee conveners and members, and was guided by the faculty in-charges.

The results were as follows—Best Open Speaker: Dyuthi A (SLS Pune) ,Best Novice Speaker: Varsha Venkat (ILNU) ,Best Judge: Shruti Deb (DSNLU) ,OPEN CHAMPIONS: Closing Opposition – Camp Lazlo (Symbiosis Pune) ,NOVICE CHAMPIONS: Closing Opposition - WeHaveOurMidsemsNextWeek (ILNU, Nirmla).

2nd CNLU ONLINE BRITISH PARLIAMENTARY DEBATE

Carrying the legacy that the 1st BPD had started, the 2nd BPD was also a huge success. The debate culture of CNLU has always been one of the best nationwide, and this parliamentary debate was testimony to that fact.

The ADC organised the 2nd CNLU ONLINE BRITISH PARLIAMENTARY DEBATE from October 1-3rd, 2021.

As usual, the prize money was kept high as ever, inviting students—both national and international. With a huge cash prize pool of Rs. 72000, the University hosted some of the best debaters in the circuit. This was an OPEN tournament and cross teams were allowed. The tournament had a separate novice category as well. Like previous editions of CNLU Parliamentary debates, a brilliant panel comprising of Matt Caito, Eva Marie Quinones, Rahul Seth and Eric Kazadi formed the Core Adjudication Panel. The panel of invited adjudicators was also one of the best we could have had, consisting of Riddhi Mukherjee, Agastya Rana, Shraddha Kulkarni, Raghav Kalra and Mehul Joshi.

With the expert assistance of the Tab Masters and Equity Committee, the tournament turned out to be a huge success.

The results were as follows-Best Open Speaker: Jessica Musulin from Australia

RUNNERS UP: Abhijith Subramanian and Ahmed El Sammak from London School of Economics. NOVICE CHAMPIONS: Closing Opposition – Akanksha Singh and Gitika Mittal
INTERNALSESSIONS ,Regular online DebSoc sessions were conducted in this academic year. Open to students from all the five batches of CNLU, these sessions help debaters and adjudicators alike to hone their skills before participating in national and international tournaments. Debates within these sessions are conducted on a variety of diverse themes including socio-political, environment, economy, sports popular culture, etc. This ensures that alongside thorough practice in the technical aspects of debating, students also become well versed with sufficient general knowledge required to construct winning arguments in official tournaments. British Parliamentary Sessions ,An important development pushed forward by the ADC this year was to expand the culture of debating within CNLU—that earlier mostly focused on the Asian Parliamentary Debating format—by encouraging students to participate in British Parliamentary Debates (BPD). For this purpose, BPD orientations were conducted by the ADC to familiarise students with the rules and techniques of this format. Consequently, debates in internal DebSoc sessions were conducted in this format alongside regular APDs. This impetus towards BPD also contributed to the success of the first two BPD tournaments organised by ADC CNLU this year.

आयें, चले बुद्ध की ओर

दुःख बोझिल बन गई थी धरणी,
वैदिक हिंसा—हिंसा न नहीं का मचा था शोर।
थे धरम करम सुसुप्त हो चले,
था अज्ञान अमावस छाया चहुँ ओर।

जो बुद्ध सीख से सद सीख लिए,
जग नत मस्तक है उनके आगे।
जापान आज की मन्दी में भी,
जाता प्रगति पथ पर सरपट भागे।

धरम नाम पर चलते धन्धे,
आतंकवाद सबको डरवाये।
लट्टु स्नेह भरा मानवता दीपक,
क्षण प्रतीक्षण बुझता जाये।

आये तथागत इस धरती पर
हुआ मानवीयता का मंगल भोर।
करुण शील की वरसी धारा,
सब जन भये प्रेम रस बोर।
आयें, चलें बुद्ध की ओर।

हम भूल गये तथागत को,
सोने की चिड़िया काफूर हुई।
अब भी देर नहीं हुई है,
पकड़े करुण मैत्री रस डोर।
आयें, चलें बुद्ध की ओर।

अंधेर नगरी, चौपट राजा,
नेता बन गये सारे घोर।
थके पांव अब राह न सूझी,
हाहाकार मचा चहुँ ओर,
आयें, चलें बुद्ध की ओर।।
