

Capacity Building Program on 'Aatmanirbhar Bharat'

"Rural Entrepreneurship (MSME) Opportunities in Geographical Indications, Plant Varieties and Farmers Rights, Biodiversity Laws"

Justice Mrs. Mridula Mishra (Retd.)
Vice Chancellor, CNLU, Patna

India is a country of villages Agriculture and Handicrafts are primary occupation from ages. The Agro-climatic variations have been boon for the villagers. The Agricultural, National, and manufacturing goods, having especiality in Varieties of food grains with taste and flavours, beauty in handicrafts, have attracted the attention of the consumers globally. These have kept rural livelihood active and alive. But the Rural people couldn't exploit their especiality and earn premium due to lack of awareness. The Global movement towards Intellectual innovation and exploitation in the form of TRIPS & WTO, motivated the Nations to amend their existing IP legislations ,and enact New suigeneris one .The Government of India moved for Suigeneris legislations for Geographical Indications , Biodiversity , Plant Varieties and Farmer's Rights .These legislations provide Opportunities to the Rural peoples, Farmer's varieties, seed breeders, plant breeders Crafts persons, artisans, Entrepreneurs for trading , earning their livelihood and Make INDIA ATMANIRBHAR. Hence the Hon'ble PM's call: 'Be Vocal for Local' has become relevant to these IP legislations.

Hence, the Centre strives for capacity Building Program in GI, Biodiversity and Plant Varieties, Farmer's Rights laws for Rural Entrepreneurship, as a part of "Aatmanirbhar Bharat" in three days Series of Webinar from 30th July, 2020 to 1st August, 2020.The webinar aims to explore the significance of these laws, means to avail benefits and earn livelihood at the vicinity.
