[OUR COMMON CONCERN ON TEACHING AND RESEARCH IN LAW (CCTRL-2021)]

National Workshop, Date: 21.12.2021. (Time-11:30AM-2:30 PM.)

Venue: Online-Offline

Research is the backbone of Higher Educational Institutions, either it be graduate, post graduate or research programs. Every program in every discipline requires research, which literally means 'study'. The research in social sciences and Law is urgent need of society today. It does not mean that there is no research in the HEI. 'We the people of India' have enacted and adopted our constitution for our own good governance. Nevertheless, we have been facing a lot of problems to be resolved. Among many issues, one for the HEI is Teaching and Research. The teaching and Research are two shapes of the same coin. They are complementary and supplementary to each other. Without Research there can be no teaching, and without teaching, there cannot be research, i.e. Exposure and cultivation of mind of both students and Teachers. Hence for the teaching community, it is our common concern to find the ways for vibrant research environment with quality research in academics for socio-economic-politico causes and their development.

The Centre for Innovation Research and Facilitation in Intellectual Property for Humanity and Development (CIRF-in-IPHD) of CNLU is organising 'online-offline' Research workshop on 21st December 2021 at (12PM-2PM). On this occasion, the E-Journals-EJAIRIPA, I P BULLETIN and The Chanakya Law Review, of the Centre CNLU shall be released.
