RASHTRIYA RAKSHA UNIVERSITY

(An Institution of National Importance)

Pioneering National Security and Police University of India

Expression of Interest for the contractual post of Research Officers/ Assistants at the Rashtriya Raksha University.

Rashtriya Raksha University invites an expression of interest for a highly fulfilling and satisfying assignment of Research Officers/ Assistants on MLAT Project from the interested candidate.

About Rashtriya Raksha University

Rashtriya Raksha University, an Institution of National Importance of India, Pioneering National Security and Police University of India, Ministry of Home Affairs, Government of India, is established by the Parliament of India, Act No. 31 of 2020.

The University aims to become an academic-research-training ecosystem for national security and police. It endeavours to create a highly professional and well-trained police and security force in the nation with a carefully developed perception of reassurance to the citizen rather than a threat. RRU focusses on developing curriculum for national security, police education, research, and training through its qualified civilian and professional faculty, committed human resources, motivated participants and students. RRU offers an intellectually stimulating and professionally disciplined environment, and a world-wide network for knowledge sharing and exchange.

It aims at providing education in contemporary and futuristic security and strategic studies with an interdisciplinary perspective. The University contributes to the vision of India of peace and prosperity in a stable world in alliance with grand strategic cooperation between like-minded nations. The RRU mandate is geared at promoting greater understanding between internal security officers, military and paramilitary forces, diplomats, civil servants, and civilians to further the cause of the Nation.

It adopts a two-tier approach, at the national and international level, in its education, research, training, and extension activities to be able to respond to the needs, expectations, and aspirations of its key stakeholders in the security and strategic community including legislative, judicial, economic, governance and the civil society counterparts.

Role Description

The modus operandi of perpetrators or potential perpetrators of crime, particularly of those engaged in international terrorism, organized crime and illicit trafficking in narcotic drugs etc has evolved and changed with the advancement of technology and has assumed a transnational dimension. Accordingly, the Ministry of Home Affairs has entered into and pursued a variety of multilateral/ bilateral initiatives on security-related issues with various countries to counter transnational crime, terrorism, and other serious offences, such as drug trafficking, money laundering, counterfeit currency, smuggling of arms and explosives etc.

The legal framework for combating Crime including International terrorism includes Treaties on Mutual Legal Assistance in Criminal Matters, Memorandum of Understandings/ Bilateral Agreements to counter Organized Crimes, Joint Working Groups on Counter Terrorism/International Terrorism which are signed between India and other countries on bilateral basis. Such treaties/agreements are with a view to securing bilateral cooperation against various forms of crime like terrorism, drug trafficking, money laundering, counterfeiting of Indian currency notes.

The Ministry of Home Affairs is the nodal Ministry for concluding Mutual Legal Assistance Treaties in Criminal Matters which are designed to facilitate widest measures of mutual assistance in investigation, prosecution and prevention of crime, service of summons and other judicial documents, execution of warrants and other judicial commissions and tracing, restraint, forfeiture or confiscation of proceeds and instruments of crime.

This role is aimed at performing a descriptive research on the various MLAT arrangements that the Ministry has undertaken, and suggesting the differences and similarities in the provisions with a view to standardise the MLAT provisions. This necessarily involves performing appropriate legal research and background research of case laws in India and abroad pertaining to the various legal challenges in the MLAT architecture.
