PRESS RELEASE

Consortium of NLUs Extends Application Deadline for CLAT 2024

The Consortium of National Law Universities (the “Consortium”) a registered society comprising of twenty-three member National Law Universities (“NLUs”) has announced a crucial update regarding the Common Law Admission Test (“CLAT”) for the academic year 2024. Known for conducting one of the most prestigious law entrance examinations in India, the Consortium of NLUs in its Executive Committee Meeting has decided to extend the last date for CLAT 2024 applications from Friday, November 03, 2023 to Friday 11:59 PM, November 10, 2023.

The Consortium has been established with the aim of improving the standards of legal education in the country and serving the justice system through legal education. The Consortium conducts a high-integrity, fair, and inclusive Common Law Admission Test (CLAT) for admissions to Undergraduate (UG) and Postgraduate (PG) Programmes at member NLUs each year. This year, CLAT 2024 is scheduled on December 03, 2023.

This extension in the application deadline will come as a relief to countless law aspirants across the country. It provides students with more time to complete their application process and ensure that they do not miss the opportunity to appear for CLAT 2024, to gain admission at the prestigious National Law Universities in the Academic Year 2024-25.
