E-JAIRIPA (E-Journal of Academic Innovation and Research in Intellectual Property Assets) is a half yearly, peer Reviewed online Journal of the Centre for Innovation Research and Facilitation in Intellectual Property for Humanity and Development (CIRF –in- IPHD) of Chanakya National Law University. Research is the backbone of academics. The journals are the conveyances on which the research papers are carried on from the authors to the readers, the reaction of reader's to authors' vice-versa. The journals expedite the process of thesis –antithesis and synthesis. The research scholars' survey the problems in the area of their disciplines and think over the gap. Hence the contribution made by the author-researcher helps the teaching community, research scholars and policymakers. It helps the book authors, either be it student edition or reference. It is the journal that keeps the teachers updated and well informed. The class teaching is monotonous without current and relevant issues as it correlates the academics with real world. The Journals are supplementary and complementary to academics, a bridge between society and academicians for the benefit of students and researchers. This cycle goes on with observation, scrutiny, comments, analysis, updating the existing knowledge and filling the gap.

The regular readers of the journals are well informed, advanced and confident. They learn the style of writing and way of expression. The journal carries variety of opinion, ideas, information that help in the correction of concept and revealing the truth. This is the reason that research writing and publication is essential component for the Academic positions. The paper writing is a proof that the person has academic bent of mind. It is a proof that one is growing. This E-Journal has been launched and released for the benefit of all the stake holders without making any discrimination on the basis of caste, creed, race, colour, class, gender and political boundary, etc. This journal has open access to all concern.
