7. To evaluate the Financial Part, CNLU shall consider the following:

The Bid price

- i price adjustment for correction of arithmetic errors
- ii price adjustment due to discounts offered
- iii converting the amount resulting from applying (i) to (ii) above, if relevant, to a single currency, for evaluation and comparison purposes.
- iv price adjustment due to quantifiable nonmaterial nonconformities

8. In evaluating the Financial Part of each Bid, the Employer shall correct arithmetical errors on the following basis:

- i only for admeasurement contracts, if there is a discrepancy between the unit price and the total price that is obtained by multiplying the unit price and quantity, the unit price shall prevail and the total price shall be corrected, unless in the opinion of CNLU there is an obvious misplacement of the decimal point in the unit price, in which case the total price as quoted shall govern and the unit price shall be corrected;
- ii if there is an error in a total corresponding to the addition or subtraction of subtotals, the subtotals shall prevail and the total shall be corrected; and
- iii if there is a discrepancy between words and figures, the amount in words shall prevail, unless the amount expressed in words is related to an arithmetic error, in which case the amount in figures shall prevail subject to (i) and (ii) above.

9. Bidders shall be requested to accept correction of arithmetical errors. Failure to accept the correction shall result in the rejection of the Bid.

10. In the event of identification of a potentially Abnormally Low/High Bid, CNLU shall seek written clarifications from the Bidder, including detailed price analyses of its Bid price in correlation to the subject matter of the contract, scope, proposed methodology, schedule, allocation of risks and responsibilities and any other requirements of the bidding document.

11. If the Bid for an admeasurement contract, which results in the lowest evaluated cost, in CNLU's opinion, seriously unbalanced or front loaded CNLU may require the Bidder to provide written clarifications. Clarifications may include detailed price analyses to demonstrate the consistency of the Bid prices with the scope of works, proposed methodology, schedule and any other requirements of the bidding document.
